Dubai, UAE; Delhi, India—20 January 2026—Seed Group, a company of The Private Office of Sheikh Saeed bin Ahmed Al Maktoum, strategically unites with Invincible Ocean, a technology firm specialising in AI-powered digital identity verification, fraud detection, and secure onboarding solutions for regulated industries.

The alliance underscores a common goal to improve digital trust, compliance, and efficiency across important sectors. By joining Seed Group’s network, Invincible Ocean will leverage its over two decades of market strength, deep institutional relationships, and strong affiliation with the UAE’s royal family. These advantages will help the Indian tech company to accelerate its regional presence and connect with key decision-makers in banking, fintech, insurance, and enterprise services.

Headquartered in Delhi, India, Invincible Ocean is an AI-driven technology company delivering intelligent solutions across digital onboarding, fraud detection, video analytics, and cloud-native AI platforms. The company leverages advanced artificial intelligence, computer vision, and machine learning models to enable secure identity verification, real-time risk assessment, video-based intelligence, and automated decision-making at scale.

Its portfolio spans global identity and document intelligence with face matching and liveness detection, vehicle and mobility intelligence, and fully customisable, white-label onboarding systems designed for rapid deployment. Built on a secure, cloud-first architecture and aligned with global data-protection standards, Invincible Ocean is trusted by leading enterprises, including Tata Projects, Adani, Toyota, Audi, Skoda, Volkswagen, Maruti, Reliance General Insurance, and ICICI Bank.

“Seed Group recognises the growing demand for scalable, intelligent verification frameworks as digital economies expand. Invincible Ocean’s AI-led approach to identity, compliance, and risk assessment aligns well with regional regulatory expectations. This partnership brings practical value for businesses seeking faster onboarding, reduced fraud exposure, and operational efficiency without compromising security,” remarked Hisham Al Gurg, Chief Executive Officer of Seed Group and The Private Office of Sheikh Saeed bin Ahmed Al Maktoum.

“We are honoured to partner with Seed Group to enter the UAE,” said Ajay Setia, Founder and CEO of Invincible Ocean. “Technology alone isn’t enough. Understanding regional requirements, regulatory demands, and local business culture is key to delivering products that are not just innovative but truly fit for purpose. This partnership will help us build future-ready solutions tailored to the Middle East.”

Sagar Setia, Co-Founder and COO, added, “Dubai is not just open to new technologies — it actively enables them at scale. Our first international expansion from Dubai marks a key milestone for Invincible Ocean, and we look forward to serving enterprise clients across the region with AI and blockchain solutions designed for real-world impact.”

The business association is set to support the continued advancement of the UAE’s digital infrastructure and strengthen Dubai’s prominence as a centre for secure fintech and digital services. This initiative is consistent with broader MENA objectives to promote the adoption of regulatory technology, improve data protection, and advance digital trade across borders.
